

HBRP follows a set rule of guidelines for all its Authors. Only original research papers/ review papers/ short articles and case studies can be submitted in the journal based on its focus and scope. It is mandatory that the work has not been published previously or under consideration for publication in any journal, magazine or website.

Plagiarism

We do not accept plagiarised papers. All the manuscripts are screened for plagiarism before they are considered for submission. If the manuscript is found plagiarised at any stage of publication will be rejected.

Submission

- All files should be submitted online on the journal's website www.hbrppublication.com. Submissions by email of any manuscript is also accepted.
- Figures and tables should be embedded in the manuscript as one single word file(.doc file) for submission , Once your submission is completed online, the online journal management system that we are using will generate a manuscript ID and password that will be sent to corresponding author's email id.
- Submission will only be considered completed once you send the scanned copy of copyright/declaration form.
- After the successful submission of the manuscript , an acknowledgement will be sent to your email id.
- After the manuscript is accepted for publication, any inquiry related to publishing can be addressed with our publishing team.

Manuscript Format

The Author's should submit the Manuscript in the following format.

- Title: Title must be informative and specific and reflect the purpose of the paper.
 - Author Name, Affiliation and Email ID: Author(s) First name and Last name only. Affiliation should include author's designation, department, college, city, state and country. Corresponding Author's E-Mail is only required.
 - Abstract: One paragraph containing at most 100 words. It is a kind of summary of the report.
 - Keywords: Minimum 3-5 most important terms that describes your research to be mentioned.
 - Introduction: This section should be informing the reader of the relevance of your research.
 - Literature Survey: This section includes a short history and all the researches done in the background by previous researchers.
 - Methods / Approach: This section should describe how you are supposed to rectify the problem, what approach or what methodology you are supposed to use in your paper.
 - Results/ Discussion: This section describes the outputs generated in the methodology section.
-

- Conclusion: Final result of your research performed.
- Future Scope: What are the future possibilities of improvement in the research you performed. Discuss the limitations and benefits over historical research.
- References: Minimum 5-7 references are mandatory.
- Make sure you are formatting your manuscript as per HBRP Sample Paper Format.

Editorial Review

- Manuscripts that are judged as plagiarised or are of insufficient quality for publication are rejected during initial screening. The remaining manuscripts go through a blind peer review process with reviewers and editors. Possible decisions after review are: Acceptation, revision or rejection. Authors should submit back their revisions within 14 days in the case of revision.
-